Irishman's Joke.
Over in Clay county, Mo., there was a funny Irishman, says the Wellington News. It was years ago when Philander Lucas was judge of the circuit court. The Irishman had a suit before Lucas, and when it was tried, his attorney asked that it be passed as his client wanted to employ additional counsel. When the judge was going to dinner, the Irishman accosted him. "Your honor," he began, "I'm thinkin' iv employin' another lawyer fr me case. An' Oi think Oi wud rather pay yeez t' ripraysia me than anny wan else. Because, Judge, Oi think yeez have a very good knowledge iv th' law an' thin, bein' on th' bench, yeez wud have a very good notion iv how th' thing is goin'."

CHARM BROUGHT SNAKE DOWN.
Captain of Sailing Vessel Spins a Little Yarn.
This tale has to do with the mis-happ of the sailing vessel Indrasahma, Capt. W. E. Craven, who says he is in nowise related to Munchausen, says the New York Times. The Indrasahma got into port yesterday from Singapore, the Philippines, Japan and other far eastern points with a cargo of hemp, oriental curios and tea.
"We left Singapore about two months ago with our cargo and with a supply of snakes, monkeys and other tropical beasts, which we intended to dispose of to menageries in America," said the captain. "Among them were five big snakes, weighing 250 pounds each, and thirty-nine monkeys.
When off Singapore the snakes woke up and got out of their cage. One of them sneaked up the foremast to the crow's nest and stayed there for a week. I put Abdul Vin Jangin—not Jaggin, mind ye—upon the job, and told him to watch. He sat down in front of the mast and did a charm song or chant until the mesmerized snake came to and sneaked down again. With a flourish of the tail he gave his four companions the high sign and led them back to their box again."

WORSHIP BISMARCK AS A GOD.
African Tribe Has Made Deity of Great Chancellor.
A missionary who recently returned from South America discovered on the route to Orurotufagosta a tribe of fetish redskins worshipping Bismarck as a god. Last year, when the drought threatened their harvest, they offered up prayers to their usual idols, but all to no avail. Their chief, having seen at an emigrant farmer's hut the picture of the Iron Chancellor cut out from an illustrated German paper, asked the farmer to make him a present of the print, which request was willingly agreed to. Thereupon the Indians brought the picture in great procession to their temple, and strange to say a welcome rain watered the lands of the tribe. Since that time the deity of the Chancellor, whom the Indians call Bimbarko, is firmly established, and all kinds of reptiles are offered up to him in sacrifice.

Hens All Ready to Move.
This story is told of "Ike" Morse, who once lived in West Compton, N.
H. He was noted for his witty sayings and his numerous movings.
The year he lived in West Compton he had already moved eleven times,

He Moved Twelve Times a Year.
When one morning a neighbor who chanced to pass found him packing up to move again.
"What!" exclaimed the neighbor;
"moving again, Ike?"
"Yes," answered Ike; "got so used to it the hens are all lying on their backs now ready to have their legs tied."

Four Bears in Two Minutes.
Samuel Kerstetter, while making a call at the Democrat office the other day, gave us an account of four bears being shot by his son Samuel in the mountain north of Laurelton, which is a record worth noting.

The animals were killed in about two minutes' time, and it only took five shots from Samuel's gun to do the work.
The lot consisted of a she bear and three cubs. The mother bear weighed 261 pounds, the cubs weighed, one 110, one 77 and the other 51 pounds.
The old bear was sold for $35, and each of the cubs $10, making a total of $65 for the lot—Center Hall Democrat.

Spanish Cannon 200 Years Old Found.
While playing on his father's ranch near Oxnard, Cal., Peter Donlon unearthed an old cannon of Spanish origin and probably 200 years old. This land has been plowed over and over again, but the cannon was found only fourteen inches below the surface.

It was dug up immediately and hailed to Mr. Donlon's home. It is about five feet in length, has a bore of three inches, and weighs between 1,000 and 1,500 pounds. The inscriptions on it are illegible, but enough is visible to make its Spanish origin indisputable.

Home of Artificial Plants.
There are 430 manufactories of artificial flowers, leaves, plants and fruits in the district of Dresden. The largest manufactories employ from 250 to 1,000 persons, and the total number of persons engaged in the trade is estimated at 10,000, the larger proportion being women and girls.

Vitality of Frog's Heart.
There is no living creature, according to a Pennsylvania surgeon, that has a heart with so much vitality as that of a common frog. Late experiments have shown that the heart showed valvular motion for a full day after it had been severed entirely from the body.

Treat That Rover Missed.
Tales of the siege of Paris during the Franco-Prussian war have been many. One of these yarns was as follows: A much-loved collie dog had been preserved by its owners from the death that befell all pets during that time of starvation. There came at last a day, however, when it, too, had to go, and the sorrowing but famished family met their pet for the last time in the soup tureen. They ate in silence until nothing remained but a heap of bones. Then the master of the house, an absent-minded person, looked round in search of something, and said with a sigh: "How poor old Rover would have enjoyed those bones!"

Infallible Cure for Toothache.
A London physician at a meeting of a medical society stated that extraction of teeth was unnecessary. He was enabled to cure the most desperate case of toothache, he said, unless the case was connected with rheumatism, by the application of the following remedy to the diseased tooth: Alum, reduced to an impalable powder, two drachms; nitrous spirits of ether, seven drachms; mix and apply to tooth.

Learning About the Brain.
We are all phrenologists nowadays, not with any care for bumps and bumps, but with a growing conviction that we are beginning to see, in faint outline, some facts that hang together and will some day go to make a good working theory of the life of the brain.

PANTOMIME HAD BAD EFFECT.

London Youth Copied Crimes of Hero of Stage.
Are modern melodramas harmful to uneducated minds? Some of the old-time pantomimes in London proved to be. In the eighteenth century one of the most popular productions at the Drury Lane theater of those days was a pantomime called "Harlequin Jack Sheppard," which was simply a reproduction of the crimes of this popular young criminal, who was only 23 when he was hanged. His chief appeal to the popular imagination was his brilliant escape from Newgate prison with the fetters on his hands, and when he was made the subject of a Christmas entertainment hundreds flocked to see it. It was even proved that numbers of boy pickpockets who filled the prisons about that time had got their first inspiration to thieve from this melodramatic entertainment, and one boy confessed that he stole in order to get to the pantomime and hoped some day to be as clever as Jack Sheppard.

His View Utilitarian.
To her already considerable collection of old mahogany the woman had added an unusually large dresser that had its top covered with a slab of marble not less than six feet long.
All sorts of comments had been made on it, but one of her men friends struck a note that illustrated just how many different viewpoints there may be in the world. He stood in front of it for a few moments and seemed to be comparing the length of that marble slab with his own person.
Then he remarked slowly: "Wouldn't it be great to have that in your room and come home late on a hot summer's night, take off your clothes and lie down on it."

"Call" Loan.
A "call" loan is a loan of money that may be called in by the lender at any moment. "Call money" is money set aside for the repayment of a call loan.

A NECESSARY EVIL.

Experience of a Minister Who Tried to Think That of Coffee.
"A descendant of the Danes, a nation of coffee drinkers, I used coffee freely till I was 20 years old," writes a clergyman from Iowa. "At that time I was a student at a Biblical Institute, and suddenly became aware of the fact that my nerves had become demoralized, my brain dull and sluggish and that insomnia was fastening its hold upon me.
"I was loath to believe that these things came from the coffee I was drinking, but at last was forced to that conclusion, and quit it.
"I was so accustomed to a hot table beverage and felt the need of it so much, that after abstaining from coffee for a time and recovering my health, I went back to it. I did this several times, but always with disastrous results. I had about made up my mind that coffee was a necessary evil.
"About this time a friend told me that I would find Postum Food Coffee very fine and in many respects away ahead of coffee. So I bought some and, making it very carefully according to the directions, we were delighted to find that he had not exaggerated in the least. From that day to this we have liked it better than the old kind of coffee or anything else in the way of a table drink.
"Its use gave me, in a very short time, an increase in strength, clearness of brain and steadiness of nerves; and sleep, restful and restoring, came back to me.
"I am thankful that we heard of Postum and shall be glad to testify at any time to the good it has done me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

book, "The Road to Wellville," in

DAZED WITH PAIN.
The Sufferings of a Citizen of Olympia, Wash.

L. S. Gorham, of 516 East 4th St., Olympia, Wash., says: "Six years ago I got wet and took cold, and was soon flat in bed, suffering tortures with my back. Every movement caused an agonizing pain, and the persistence of it exhausted me, so that for a time I was dazed and stupid. On the advice of a friend I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, and soon noticed a change for the better. The kidney secretions had been disordered and irregular, and contained a heavy sediment, but in a week's time the urine was clear and natural again and the passages regular. Gradually the aching and soreness left my back and then the lameness. I used six boxes to make sure of a cure, and the trouble has never returned."

Ever Hear of "Scotty" and His Record-Breaking Ride?
The story, briefly told, is this: Walter Scott, the Death Valley gold miner, made the trip from Los Angeles to Chicago last summer on a special train over the "Santa Fe" in less than 45 hours. That whirlwind train cost him more than $6,000. It was the fastest long distance run over mountains and plains ever made on any American railway. It demonstrated beyond dispute that the Santa Fe track, equipment and employees are of the dependable kind. Probably you
